

THE DISTRESS IN ST. CROIX.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

Government, as well as private dispatches, fully concur in the details of suffering and want occasioned by the uprising of the negroes in the Island of St. Croix. I beg to inform sympathizing Danes, and others interested in the island, that I will gladly receive any contributions they may make, and send them to the Governor of the island.

HENRIK BRAEM.

DANISH CONSULATE, No. 52 BROADWAY, NEW-YORK, Monday, Oct. 28, 1878.

The New York Times

Published: October 29, 1878

Copyright © The New York Times